Memories 57—63

Anthony Wayne is many things. To each student it holds a special meaning.

To some it means the faculty whose time, effort, and consideration makes the task of learning lighter.

To some, Anthony Wayne means the activities that played an important role in the social development of each student.

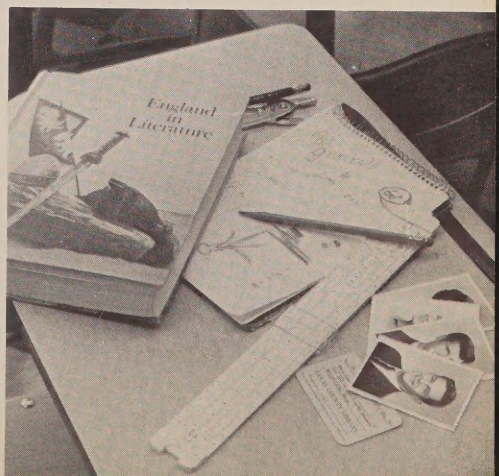

To many it represents the long hours of practice for athletes.

For everyone, Anthony Wayne holds memories of the events of the past years--some happy, some sad; but all memorable.

But most of all Anthony Wayne is students. When the new school year opened, we had many plans and hopes. We began organizing and soon filled the empty classrooms and organizations.

There were sounds of noisy fun, but when there was work to do, we accomplished it. We strived to live up to the standards set for us by others so that we could wear the Anthony Wayne uniforms with pride.

Generals

"Hey, look me over!" played the Marching Generals and everyone looked. They saw the smart new uniforms, the products of several years work on the part of the Band Mothers and band members alike.

They saw the band perform five shows and three concerts under the direction of Mr. Reed.

Even though it was a busy year, it was an exciting one from the first time the spats were yanked on to the last time they were eased off.

It is an accepted fact that majorettes add a great deal to the appearance of a band. This year the Marching Generals were especially fortunate to be led by a group of girls that not only presented a nice appearance but also added to the shows with its many and varied routines.

Once a month a class period was taken for club meetings. Reports on events of the month in Spanish speaking countries were made. A Spanish game usually closed the program.

Everyone prepared a notebook on a Spanish speaking country, from newspapers, magazines, and pamphlets.

The main feature of the year was the March 27 banquet, for which each club furnished its share of the food, decorations, and entertainment.

Janet Wilder and Pearl Horning chat over coming events.

Installing officers of the Junior High chapter and instructing them in the organization of their own chapter.

In order to carry out this year's theme, "Earn Money--Impress People," the Future Homemaker's of America had several money-making activities to demonstrate the proper management of money. These activities included Daddy-Date Nite, a skating party, and a Halloween Dance. Bake sales, F.H.A. pencil sales, candy apple sales, and the sale of shakers for home games highlighted other projects.

Other activities included in this year's program were bowling and the annual parent banquet.

The F.H.A. combined with the F.F.A. to sponsor the skating and the bowling parties.

With all our money-making activities, this has been a very successful year.

Future Farmers of America

Anthony Wayne's Future Farmers of America Chapter is the only one in Lucas County. Its forty-four members participate in many activities throughout the year. During the school year FFA members operate the refreshment stands at basketball and football games. Three FFA members appeared on WTOL-TV in observance of National FFA Week, February 17-24. This year the chapter competed against other FFA chapters in contests of many types. During the second week of May they participated in the state judging contests.

The year was climaxed with the election of next year's officers and the annual FFA banquet on April 19.

Behind these impressive showings were the fine performances of the entire team, including the seniors pictured on the next page. Bill Mazey and Larry Wiemken in particular made records to remember. Bill and Larry both made the Blade NLL Teams, and took the squad's offensive and defensive individual awards.

Coached by Robert Streight, AW's 1962 Golf Team made a noteworthy showing as a young, but building, unit. They scored a 2 and 6 record with Philip Lewandowski taking the honors with a low score of 80. Low average was 91.5 strokes, also earned by Lewandowski along with Chuck Mayfield.

Wrestling Generals

When a 2nd year wrestling team posts a 3-6 record, it appears that they have undergone an unsuccessful season. The 1961-1962 AW Grapplers proved themselves to be the exception to the rule. With an enthusiastic turnout, the matmen went up against stiff competition undaunted. The team improvement during the season can be well illustrated by the wrestlers' two showings against Perrysburg. They were plowed under 41-6 on the first meeting, but shortened that margin to 9 points in the 2nd contest.

In District Matches, Bill Adams and Ken Saunders both scored wins to finish 4th in their respective weight classes. Scoring leaders were Chuck Gibson with 31 points, Ken Saunders with 24, and Dave Garard with 18.

Anthony Wayne is . . . Memories

What will you remember? The first trip around the floor to see the decorations?

Sayonara

What one thing will you remember about the Junior-Senior Prom? If you were a junior, maybe it will be the anxious hours of preparation--the hurried trip to the store for tape or tar paper. If you were a senior, maybe you'll remember the anticipation of the prom.

The antics of the Samurai Four Minus One--Pete Ugolini, Dave Weaver and Alan Grimm?

The cherry trees in full bloom?

The times between dances when you just sat and talked?

Perhaps you will remember the coronation of our king and queen. Reigning over "Sayonara" were Susan Kirkpatrick and Mike Oliszewski and their royal court.

Royal Court

John Schmuhl and Beth Farnsworth.

Pat Connolly and Jeanne White.

Ron Dieter and Gail Wilhelm.

Or will you remember the sophomores dressed as Japanese boys and girls who served you delicious oriental foods?

What one thing will you remember about the Junior-Senior Prom? Chances are that you won't remember just one specific thing. The prom is made up of many exciting moments which all blend into one happy memory.

Anthony Wayne is all these things, Yet more

The school year has come to an end. We had many thrilling games, but equally important are the spirit and sportsmanship that were displayed.

Every night was spent working on the assignment that brought a rewarding grade. This is important because of the knowledge that will be forever with us.

Not only did we gain a membership card from the clubs we participated in, but we also developed leadership qualities that will assist us in every phase of our life.

Anthony Wayne has given us many opportunities throughout the year. We set our goals and strived to make them realities. Now it is evident that our work has been satisfactory. We filled the traditional uniforms that were unoccupied at the beginning of the year. We have brought life to each activity the uniform represents, and we are able to leave the school knowing that our plans and hopes have been fulfilled.

Many thanks go to everyone who has helped make the 1962 Trailblazer a success: our publishers, The American Yearbook Company; our photographers, Powell Studios, Enterprise School Photos, Mr. Young for his Polaroid camera, our advisor, Mr. Taggart; and all others who contributed their time and effort.
